Author's Notes:
Inspired by a list of words untranslatable into English.

"Teach me some more Portuguese." Dave rested in the cradle of Kiko's arms, warm and safe after their latest round. "Anything, just a new word."

Kiko was propped up on two pillows, fingers combing through Dave's curls and massaging his scalp. "Hmmm," he pulled a ringlet between two fingers and let it bounce back into place. "How about cafuné?"

"Cafuné." Dave rolled the pronunciation around. "What's it mean?" he slurred.

Kiko started his fingers at Dave's forehead and stroked through the red waves. "This." Kiko smiled softly and stroked the long locks.

Dave sighed blissfully. "Cafuné away then."
